FOREWORD

The statistics presented in this brochure of Canada's trade with the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland; as also of the total external trade of the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland, were specially compiled for the use of the Imperial Economic Conference, 1932. The brochure is divided into two parts; the first part presents the trade of Canada in rather complete detail with the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland, while the second part sets forth, also in rather complete detail, the trade of each unit of the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland with Empire and foreign countries as well as with the principal countries with which the various units of the Empire have exchange of commodities. The trade of these British countries has expanded so rapidly in the past few years, both in volume and value, that they offer undoubted potentialities for future trade expansion, and consequently merit careful consideration.

PART I.—TRADE OF CANADA WITH THE BRITISH WEST INDIAN COLONIES AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Table I presents Canada's total imports from and exports to the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland, year by year, from 1912 to 1932, while side by side are given corresponding figures for the United States, Canada's keenest competitor in these markets. During the past decade, 1922 to 1932, Canada's total imports from the British West Indian Colonies increased from $14,460,000 to $16,508,000, and from Newfoundland from $1,392,000 to $1,484,000; while exports to the British West Indian Colonies during the same period decreased from $13,631,000 to $12,276,000, and to Newfoundland from $9,626,000 to $6,901,000. The small increase in imports as also the decrease in exports are due rather to lower commodity prices in 1932, compared with 1922, than to a decrease in the volume of the import and export trade.

A preliminary survey shows in the case of imports that in 1922 Canada's imports of raw sugar from the British West Indian Colonies were: quantity, 270,002,600 pounds, valued at $10,904,000, and that in 1932 the imports were, quantity, 558,552,900 pounds valued at $11,304,000, and consequently there had been no drop in the price of raw sugar and other products from 1922 to 1932, the total value of Canada's imports from the British West Indian Colonies in 1932 based on 1922 average import prices, would have been considerably in excess of $26,000,000. With regard to exports, a survey shows in the case of flour that in 1922 Canada's exports to the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland were: quantity, 1,040,586 barrels, valued at $8,922,000, and in 1932 the exports were 1,058,396 barrels, valued at $4,263,000, and consequently if there had been no decrease in the price of flour and other products during this period Canada's total exports to these Empire countries would have shown a considerable increase rather than a decrease, as recorded.

Table II presents Canada's total trade with the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland as also the principal commodities imported from and exported to these British countries for the year 1914 (year before the war), 1922 (year following post-bellum boom), 1931 and 1932. PART II.—TRADE OF BRITISH WEST INDIAN COLONIES AND NEWFOUNDLAND

In Part II of this brochure the imports and exports for each unit of the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland are presented in rather complete detail for the latest year for which statistics are available, as also the total imports and exports for the past ten years, indicating in each case the amount the imports and exports for (a) all countries, (b) Empire and foreign countries, and (c) principal countries. The statistics in this part of the brochure set forth the extent of the imports and exports of these various units of the Empire, as also the classes of commodities imported and exported.

It will be noted by reference to the following table showing the "Trade of the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland, year 1930 compared with 1921" that the trade of these British Countries with Other Empire Countries from 1921 to 1930 increased from $119,410,725 to $127,434,929, imports from Empire Countries increasing from $69,000,153 to $75,777,191, and exports to, from $50,410,572 to $51,657,738. During the same interval imports from Canada increased from $26,849,889 to $29,334,789, and exports to, from $14,175,705 to $18,882,957; imports from the United Kingdom increased from $36,134,153 to $37,130,528, while exports to, decreased from $32,744,800 to $26,973,800; whereas imports from the United States decreased from $49,784,659 to $38,290,465, while exports to the United States increased from $18,570,248 to $29,440,257. The imports from all countries, however, from 1921 to 1930 decreased from $129,276,335 to $127,824,373, while exports to increased from $49,784,659 to $101,791,385. Further, it will be observed that Canada furnished the British West Indian Colonies and Newfoundland with 20·8 per cent of their imports in 1921, and 22·9 per cent in 1930. The United Kingdom furnished these British countries with 27·9 per cent of their imports in 1921 and 29·0 per cent in 1930, while in 1921 the imports from the United States made up 38·5 per cent of their total imports, and 29·9 per cent in 1930. With regard to exports, in 1921 Canada took 16·7 per cent of their total exports, and in 1930, 18·5 per cent. The United Kingdom in 1921 took 38·6 per cent and only 26·5 per cent in 1930; whereas in 1921 the United States took 21·9 per cent of the total exports, and in 1930, 21·9 per cent.
